THANK YOU

Many thanks from the LAKETOWN PLAYERS to the countless volunteers who make our DINNER THEATRES awesome!

Again, thanks to Shirley and Les Pearson who have so capably and obligingly looked after ticket sales and seating plans. Thanks to Jackie Padar of "Taste of Home Cooking," who as volunteer has acted as chief cook, and her "at the ready" assistant, Harry Smith; Delores Torrie and Marilyn Herron who recruited and organized the company of essential volunteers including all the indispensable dinner planners, food preparers, cooks, servers, carvers, hosts, table setters, and clean-up crews, with special mention of Wendy Hume and Heather Mickle for their lists and accumulated experience; Jeanne and Barry Czinkota for their extra attention to details, shopping and transporting; Prairie Dome for the donation of potatoes; the Curling Club for looking after the bar; YFBTA for hosting the Dessert Matinee; Saltcoats School and Gazette for helping keep the community aware of plans and needs for the production.

Thanks to the Four Town Journal and to local correspondent Helen Jarvis, for her weekly news column; Yorkton This Week; The Rock Broadcasting; Yorkton CTV; for promoting this production and our group.

Laketown Players thank the Town of Saltcoats, Council, Cindy and Karen in the Town Office, Saltcoats Town Public Works Department, and Hall Caretaker, Brenda. Being able to have most practices at the Hall and to use it during production of sets and props is a definite help and valued support.

Special thanks also to the Laketown Hotel for hosting the cast wind-up!

Thanks to all whose efforts and encouragement make this event possible. And special thanks to our great audiences whose presence and participation brings each production to life!
