Thank you, Saltcoats!

For the month of July, the Town incurred NO additional charges for contamination in trash and recycling! Keep up the great work!

SALTCOATS HISTORICAL AND MUSEUM SOCIETY

We would like to thank Legacy Co-Op for their generous donation of 13 gallons of paint which resulted in the exterior of the building getting a fresh look this summer! This brings us one step closer to completing the building renovations. We are grateful that Legacy Co-Op has such a strong tradition of serving local communities and appreciate that the Saltcoats Museum is a recipient of their support!

The summer saw a great deal of activity at the Museum as the exterior was prepped and painted. New railing went up on the back ramp thanks to the work of Ken Morrison. With the interior reno completed and now the exterior, we are hoping to start moving artifacts out of storage and back into the main sanctuary.

At this point the Board is in discussions as to how the role and function of the Historical Society needs to change to reflect that. We are a small and aging Board looking for ways to keep our history and artifacts within the community.

We would welcome any input from residents and new Board members are gratefully accepted!! There is a wealth of information contained in our local archives and it would be a loss to the surrounding community to see 45 years of collections dispersed. Any feedback can be left at the Saltcoats Town Office, or call Barb Straker (306.744.2926) or Glenda Straker (306.217.0403).

SALTCOATS LAKETOWN LEADERS

Upcoming Event! Wednesday, October 2 at 2:00 pm

Members of the local Prayer Shawl Committee will join the Laketown Leaders at the Stirling Room to give a presentation about the community service they provide.

SALTCOATS UNITED CHURCH NEEDS A NEW ROOF!
The "RAISE THE ROOF" campaign has begun!

For many years this building has hosted a large open-to-all Sunday School and various youth groups. Here baptisms and marriages were celebrated, and lives were celebrated as we marked the deaths of family members and neighbours. Today our church needs new shingles. Careful investigation shows many are broken, nearly bare, or already taken off by the wind. The shingles are too old to have enough insurance value to meet the deductible, so that means the job must be financed from scratch. We have accepted a quote from a roofer who loves churches and the challenges of corners, seams and troughs. The project will cost $28,873. For $9.00 per square foot, we will re-shingle the 3560 square feet. Please consider helping by making a tax-deductible donation. Cheques can be mailed to Box 58, Saltcoats, S0A 3R0 (e-transfer will soon be available). Questions? Call Chairperson Heather Torrie at 306-744-2748.
