Public Information Meeting and Questionnaire

Want a credit on your utility bill? Fill out and sign the Public Information Questionnaire and/or attend the Public Information Meeting in person on October 11th, 2023 at 7:00pm in the Saltcoats Community Hall and your name will be entered into the draw. Questionnaires can be picked up at the Town Office or found at www.townofsaltcoats.ca. The deadline to have your name entered into the draw is September 15th.

After hearing from taxpayers, it has been decided to make a provision for all taxpayers/homeowners to complete the questionnaire. Example - if two or more people own the property, each owner/taxpayer is encouraged to complete a questionnaire. Note that the contest rule remains only one entry per household.

400 Block Allan Ave Street Paving

Due to the rainy weather, paving has been delayed. The new start date is Tuesday September 5. The Town will keep residents advised of work proceeding on 400 Block Allan Ave. On garbage/recycle pickup days, Public Works will be responsible for making sure the bins are moved to an appropriate spot for OSS and returned back to the homeowner.

School Sidewalk Replacement

The deteriorated and cracked sidewalk in front of Saltcoats School is no more! Through SGI's Provincial Traffic Safety Fund Program, the Town received a grant to replace the old sidewalk with a brand new one and it sure looks good. Thank you SGI!

The Legends

Saltcoats Historical and Museum Society proudly announce the return of The Legends! Join them for their farewell performances on September 22nd and 23rd at the Saltcoats Community Hall. Tickets are available from Les and Shirley Pearson at (306) 716-6564. Volunteers are needed for these nights. If you are able to help, please call Barb Straker at (306) 744-2926.
